

Golub Capital Private Credit Fund (“GCRED” or the “Fund”)

Q1 2025 Quarterly Update

Performance Update

GCRED delivered a strong quarter, with Class I shares generating a 1.9% quarterly return, bringing the annualized inception-to-date net return to 10.7%.¹ Returns in the quarter were supported by attractive absolute and relative current income while unrealized losses from technical mark-to-market adjustments (not credit stress) slightly impacted the fair value of our loan portfolio given the broader market decline in liquid loan prices. The annualized net distribution rate for Class I was 8.9% in the quarter.² Our investment portfolio remained healthy with a net asset value (NAV) of $25.05 as of March 31, 2025.³

Total Net Returns¹

	Class S ⁴	Class D ⁴	Class I
1-Month	0.48%	--	0.55%
3-Month	1.68%	--	1.89%
YTD	1.68%	--	1.89%
Annualized ITD ⁵	8.90%	--	10.68%

Portfolio Update

Portfolio resilience continued in the midst of market uncertainty. Increasing tariff uncertainty negatively impacted risk-assets and financial markets in the quarter. Despite this broad-based pressure, credit performance of GCRED’s investment portfolio was strong. Approximately 98% of GCRED’s investment portfolio falls within rating categories 4 and 5 (strongest internal performance risk ratings), indicating borrowers performing at or above expectations and presenting lower risk to the portfolio. Notably, GCRED has zero debt investments rated in category 1 (highest risk) and category 2 (increased risk). Non-accrual investments are another common metric for assessing the credit health of a portfolio, as they can indicate potential defaults. GCRED’s portfolio has zero debt investments on non-accrual. This metric is significantly below the industry average.¹² We believe GCRED’s investment portfolio continues to demonstrate strong resilience, even amidst increased market uncertainty and credit stress across private and liquid credit markets.

Finding opportunities among uncertain markets. This quarter, GCRED originated approximately $1.3 billion in gross capital with net fund growth of about $0.9 billion. While there was a broader slowdown in M&A activity driven by tariff-related uncertainty, GCRED leveraged Golub Capital’s deep sponsor and borrower relationships to access differentiated deal flow, prioritizing quality over quantity. As market uncertainty intensified, the liquid loan market—previously a strong competitor in large market lending—faced growing technical pressure, providing opportunities for private lenders to step in and fill the void.

Loan Market Insights

Broad market optimism faded as policy uncertainty grew.¹³ The quarter began with widespread optimism around continued economic growth and a rebound in deal activity. However, by quarter’s end, sentiment had shifted sharply. Leading indicators—including consumer confidence and profitability trends—turned negative, largely due to growing concerns over the direct and indirect effects of tariffs.

Tariff uncertainty disrupted the liquid loan market. Policy uncertainty weighed on loan markets, prompting some private equity sponsors to delay investment decisions, which in turn dampened M&A volumes. As uncertainty mounted, leveraged loan issuance declined steadily throughout the quarter.¹⁴ Subsequently, in early April, escalating tariff concerns triggered significant technical disruption in the liquid loan market. Loan mutual funds and ETFs saw record outflows¹⁵, and secondary spreads widened meaningfully.¹⁶ The result: new issuance in the liquid loan market came to a standstill for the first half of April.

Increasing uncertainty pressured leveraged loan prices and new-loan issuance throughout Q1 2025

A silver lining to periods of uncertainty. Amid the dislocation in the liquid loan market, private credit proved to be a stable and reliable source of capital.¹⁷ In times like these, we believe trusted lenders like Golub Capital can deepen sponsor relationships by offering certainty and consistency. This environment not only enhances our long-term partnerships but also improves the quality, structure, and terms of new investments.

Credit performance dispersion persists. Signs of elevated credit stress continue to emerge across both liquid and private loan markets, particularly among borrowers struggling to adjust to higher interest rates and a shifting macroeconomic landscape. Performance dispersion among BDC managers has been evident for several quarters¹⁸—and we expect that trend to continue. Despite broader market pressures, we believe GCRED’s portfolio remains resilient, with no new payment defaults during the quarter.

Outlook

We believe GCRED’s resilient investment strategy is built for navigating uncertain environments. 2025 began with broad market optimism around economic growth and deal activity but quickly shifted to a landscape marked by tariff ambiguity, market volatility, weakening consumer sentiment, and signs of slowing growth. Against this challenging backdrop, GCRED delivered a solid second quarter.

Our performance reflects our disciplined focus on senior lending to healthy, recession-resistant businesses, supported by long-standing relationships with private equity sponsors. Our borrowers are primarily U.S.-based companies with domestic supply chains and customer bases, many in service industries. As a result, our portfolio has limited exposure to tariffs, FX risk, or global trade disruptions. We believe our sponsors and management teams have proactively positioned themselves to navigate trade-related headwinds.

While uncertainty persists, we remain active and engaged. We’re closely monitoring developments and are prepared to deploy capital into opportunities that offer compelling risk-adjusted returns. Over the past 30+ years, we’ve successfully navigated many periods of disruption—emerging stronger each time. We believe this environment will continue to separate durable, high-quality lenders from short-term players. And we’re confident that Golub Capital and GCRED will remain on the right side of that divide.

Important Investor Information

Golub Capital (including its various affiliates) creates and manages multiple investment funds. Two of its control affiliates, GC Advisors LLC (“GC Advisors” or the “Investment Adviser”) and GC OPAL Advisors LLC (“GC OPAL Advisors”, and together with GC Advisors, the “Registered Advisers”) are registered investment advisers with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”). A number of other investment advisers, such as GC Investment Management LLC and OPAL BSL LLC (Management Series) (collectively, the “Relying Advisers”) are registered in reliance upon GC OPAL Advisors’ registration. The Registered Advisers and the Relying Advisers (collectively, the “Advisers”) manage certain of Golub Capital’s affiliated funds and accounts. For a detailed description of the Advisers and each of their investment advisory fees, please see the Registered Advisers’ Form ADV Part 1 and 2A on file with the SEC. Registration is not an endorsement by the SEC, nor does it mean that a government agency approves an advisor or reviews its qualifications. Registration does not imply a certain level of skill or training, nor does it guarantee success or future performance.

Past performance is not indicative nor a guarantee of future returns and there can be no assurance that GCRED will achieve results comparable to those of any of Golub Capital’s investment funds or be able to implement its strategy or achieve its investment objectives, including due to an inability to access sufficient investment opportunities.

Additional Footnotes

1. Total Net Return is calculated as the change in price per share during the period, plus distributions per share (assuming dividends and distributions are reinvested) divided by the beginning price per share. Returns greater than one year are annualized. All returns shown are derived from unaudited financial information and are net of all expenses, including general and administrative expenses, transaction related expenses, management fees, incentive fees, and share class specific fees, but exclude the impact of early repurchase deductions on the repurchase of shares that have been outstanding for less than one year. Past performance is historical and not a guarantee of future results. The returns have been prepared using unaudited data and valuations of the underlying investments in GCRED's portfolio, which are estimates of fair value and form the basis for GCRED's price per share. Valuations based upon unaudited reports from the underlying investments may be subject to later adjustments, may not correspond to realized value and may not accurately reflect the price at which assets could be liquidated. Prior to March 31, 2025, Total Net Return was calculated as the change in price per share during the period, plus distributions per share (assuming dividends and distributions are reinvested in accordance with the Fund's distribution reinvestment plan at each monthly price per share) divided by the beginning price per share; accordingly, performance shown prior to March 31, 2025 would have been different using the current methodology.
2. As of March 31, 2025, Annualized Net Distribution Rate is calculated by multiplying the sum of (i) the last three monthly distributions per share and (ii) special distributions, if any, payable or paid by four, and dividing the result by the price per share of the month preceding the relevant three month period. Distributions are not guaranteed. While GCRED may seek a level distribution rate, GCRED's distribution rates may be affected by numerous factors, including but not limited to changes in realized and projected market returns, fluctuations in market interest rates, fund performance, and other factors. There can be no assurance that a change in market conditions or other factors will not result in a change in GCRED's distribution rate or that the rate will be sustainable in the future. Past performance is not necessarily indicative of future results. Distributions have been and may in the future be funded through sources other than cash flow. See GCRED's prospectus for additional information. Please visit GCRED's website for notices regarding distributions subject to Section 19(a) of the Investment Company Act of 1940. We cannot guarantee that we will make distributions, and if we do we may fund such distributions from sources other than cash flow from operations, including the sale of assets, borrowings, return of capital, or offering proceeds, and although we generally expect to fund distributions from cash flow from operations, we have not established limits on the amounts we may pay from such sources. As of March 31, 2025, 100% of inception to date distributions were funded from cash flows from operations and current estimates do not expect a return of capital. A return of capital (1) is a return of the original amount invested, (2) does not constitute earnings or profits and (3) will have the effect of reducing the basis such that when a shareholder sells its shares the sale may be subject to taxes even if the shares are sold for less than the original purchase price. Distributions may also be funded in significant part, directly or indirectly, from temporary waivers or expense reimbursements borne by the Investment Adviser or its affiliates, that may be subject to reimbursement to the Investment Adviser or its affiliates. The repayment of any amounts owed to our affiliates will reduce future distributions to which you would otherwise be entitled.
3. The price per share is determined in accordance with the Fund's share pricing policy. The NAV per share is determined quarterly by dividing the value of total assets minus liabilities by the total number of shares outstanding. For each fiscal quarter end, the price per share is the NAV per share as determined by the Fund's valuation process. For months in which the Fund's NAV per share is not determined, the price per share is an offering price per share that reflects a price per share that is no less than the then-current NAV per share. Please refer to the Prospectus for disclosures relating to the share pricing policy.
4. The Fund has received an exemptive order from the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission that permits the Fund to issue multiple classes of Common Shares with, among others, different ongoing shareholder servicing and/or distribution fees.
5. The Class I inception date was July 1, 2023 and the Class S inception date was April 1, 2024.
6. Represents total investments at fair value. As of March 31, 2025.
7. Measured as the fair value of investments for each category against the total fair value of all investments. Junior debt is comprised of second lien and subordinated debt. Totals may not sum due to rounding.
8. As a percentage of debt investments in GCRED's portfolio. As of March 31, 2025, GCRED held five debt investments in an amount that represented approximately 1% of debt investments based on fair value that had a fixed interest rate. Numbers may not be exact due to rounding.
9. As of December 31, 2024. The portfolio median EBITDA (defined as earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization) is based on our portfolio of debt investments and excludes (i) portfolio companies with negative or de minimis EBITDA, (ii) investments designated as recurring revenue and broadly syndicated loans and (iii) portfolio companies with any loans on non-accrual status.
10. As of December 31, 2024. Includes all private debt investments for which fair value is determined in good faith in accordance with the Fund's valuation process, which includes the review of the valuation of each portfolio company, subject to a de minimis threshold, by an independent third-party valuation firm. Excludes quoted assets and recurring revenue loans. Average loan-to-value represents the ratio of loan-to-value for each portfolio company, weighted based on the fair value of total applicable GCRED private debt investments. Loan-to-value is calculated as the current total debt through each respective loan tranche divided by the estimated enterprise value of the portfolio company using the most recently received portfolio company information. Therefore, current enterprise value may not be up to date for certain portfolio companies. See GCRED's Prospectus for additional information.

Key Risk Factors (Not Inclusive of All Risks to the Fund)

- In considering any investment performance information contained in this Material, prospective investors should bear in mind that past or estimated performance is not necessarily indicative of future results and there can be no assurance that the Fund will achieve comparable results, implement its investment strategy, achieve its objectives or avoid substantial losses or that any expected returns will be met.
- Embedded Growth. Embedded growth represents Golub Capital LLC’s (together with its affiliates, “Golub Capital”) expectations for growth based on its view of the current market environment. These expectations are based on certain assumptions that may not be correct and on certain variables that may change, are presented for illustrative purposes only and do not constitute forecasts. There can be no assurance that any such results will actually be achieved.

Summary of Risks

- We are a relatively new company with a limited operating history and there is no assurance that we will achieve our investment objective.
- The majority of our portfolio investments are valued using the investment’s fair value, as determined in good faith by our valuation designee, subject to oversight by our board of trustees, and, as a result, there could be uncertainty as to the value of our portfolio investments.
- Because subscriptions must be submitted at least five business days prior to the first calendar day of each month (unless waived), you will not know the net offering price per share at which you will be subscribing at the time you subscribe.
- You should not expect to be able to sell your common shares of beneficial interest (“Common Shares”) regardless of how we perform.
- You should not expect to have access to the money you invest for an extended period of time.
- We do not intend to list our Common Shares on any securities exchange, and we do not expect a secondary market in our Common Shares to develop prior to any listing.
- Because you should not expect to be able to sell your shares, you should not expect to be able to reduce your exposure in any market downturn.
- At the discretion of our board of trustees, we have commenced a quarterly share repurchase program, but only a limited number of shares will be eligible for repurchase and repurchases will be subject to available liquidity, among other significant restrictions. Our board of trustees may amend, suspend or terminate the share repurchase program upon 30 days’ notice, if it deems such action to be in our best interest and the best interest of our shareholders. As a result, we cannot guarantee that share repurchases will be made available each quarter.
- An investment in our Common Shares is not suitable for you if you need access to the money you invest.
- You will bear substantial fees and expenses in connection with your investment.
- Because the incentive fee is based on the performance of our portfolio, the Investment Adviser may be incentivized to make investments on our behalf that are riskier or more speculative than would be the case in the absence of such compensation arrangement.
- We cannot guarantee that we will make distributions, and if we do, we may fund such distributions from sources other than cash flow from operations, including the sale of assets, borrowings, return of capital or offering proceeds, and although we generally expect to fund distributions from cash flow from operations, we have not established limits on the amounts we may pay from such sources. Any capital returned through distributions will be returned after the payment of fees and expenses.
- Distributions may also be funded in significant part, directly or indirectly, from temporary waivers or expense reimbursements borne by the Investment Adviser or its affiliates, that may be subject to reimbursement to the Investment Adviser or its affiliates. The repayment of any amounts owed to our affiliates will reduce future distributions to which you would otherwise be entitled.
- We use and expect to continue to use leverage, which will magnify the potential for loss on amounts invested in us.
- We invest in securities that are rated below investment grade by independent rating agencies or that would be rated below investment grade if they were rated. Below investment grade securities, which are often referred to as “junk,” have predominantly speculative characteristics with respect to the issuer’s capacity to pay interest and repay principal. They may also be illiquid and difficult to value.
- Neither the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities regulator has approved or disapproved of these securities or determined if the Prospectus is truthful or complete. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense. Securities regulators have also not passed upon whether this offering can be sold in compliance with existing or future suitability or conduct standards including the ‘Regulation Best Interest’ standard to any or all purchasers.

Important Disclosure Information

In considering any investment performance information contained in this Material, prospective and current investors should bear in mind that past or projected performance is not necessarily indicative of future results and there can be no assurance that the Fund will achieve comparable results, implement its investment strategy, achieve its objectives or avoid substantial losses or that any expected returns will be met.

Estimates /Targets. Any estimates, targets, forecasts, or similar predictions or returns set forth herein are based on assumptions and assessments made by Golub Capital that it considers reasonable under the circumstances as of the date hereof. They are necessarily speculative, hypothetical, and inherently uncertain in nature, and it can be expected that some or all of the assumptions underlying such estimates, targets, forecasts, or similar predictions or returns contained herein will not materialize and/or that actual events and consequences thereof will vary materially from the assumptions upon which such estimates, targets, forecasts, or similar predictions or returns have been based. Among the assumptions to be made by Golub Capital in performing its analysis are (i) the amount and frequency of current income from an investment, (ii) the holding period length, (iii) EBITDA growth and cost savings over time, (iv) the manner and timing of sale, (v) exit multiples reflecting long-term averages for the relevant asset type, (vi) customer growth and other business initiatives, (vii) availability of financing, (viii) potential investment opportunities Golub Capital is currently or has recently reviewed and (ix) overall macroeconomic conditions such as GDP growth, unemployment and interest rate levels. Inclusion of estimates, targets, forecasts, or similar predictions or returns herein should not be regarded as a representation or guarantee regarding the reliability, accuracy or completeness of such information, and neither Golub Capital nor the Fund is under any obligation to revise such returns after the date provided to reflect the occurrence of future events, even in the event that any or all of the assumptions underlying such returns are later shown to be incorrect. None of Golub Capital, the Fund, their affiliates or any of the respective directors, officers, employees, partners, shareholders, advisers and agents of any of the foregoing makes any assurance, representation or warranty as to the accuracy of such assumptions. Investors and clients are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. Recipients of this Material are encouraged to contact Fund representatives to discuss the procedures and methodologies used to make the estimates, targets, forecasts, and/or similar predictions or returns and other information contained herein.

Forward-Looking Statements. Certain information contained in this Material constitutes “forward-looking statements,” which can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as “may,” “will,” “expect,” “intend,” “anticipate,” “estimate,” “believe,” “continue” or other similar words, or the negatives thereof. These may include financial predictions estimates and their underlying assumptions, statements about plans, objectives and expectations with respect to future operations, and statements regarding future performance. Such forward-looking statements are inherently uncertain and there are or may be important factors that could cause actual outcomes or results to differ materially from those indicated in such statements. Golub Capital believes these factors include but are not limited to those described under the section entitled “Risk Factors”, which are further described in the Prospectus, and any such updated factors included in GCRED's periodic filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, which will be accessible on the SEC’s website at www.sec.gov. These factors should not be construed as exhaustive and should be read in conjunction with the other cautionary statements that are included in this Material and in the filings. Golub Capital undertakes no obligation to publicly update or review any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise.

Investments mentioned may not be suitable for all investors. Any product discussed herein may be purchased only after an investor has carefully reviewed the prospectus and executed the subscription document, which will contain additional information about the fund. Accordingly, the terms and provisions included herein are presented as of the dates indicated and information about the fund in its final form may differ materially from the information set forth herein.

Alternative investments often are speculative, typically have higher fees than traditional investments, often include a high degree of risk and are suitable only for eligible, long-term investors who are willing to forgo liquidity and put capital at risk for an indefinite period of time. They may be highly illiquid and can engage in leverage and other speculative practices that may increase volatility and risk of loss.

Important Disclosure Information (Cont’d)

- Highly Competitive Market for Investment Opportunities. The activity of identifying, completing and realizing attractive investments is highly competitive, and involves a high degree of uncertainty. There can be no assurance that the Fund will be able to locate, consummate and exit investments that satisfy its objectives or realize upon their values or that the Fund will be able to fully invest its committed capital. There is no guarantee that investment opportunities will be allocated to the Fund and/or that the activities of Golub Capital’s other funds will not adversely affect the interests of the Fund.
- Material, Non-Public Information. In connection with other activities of Golub Capital, certain Golub Capital personnel may acquire confidential or material non-public information or be restricted from initiating transactions in certain securities, including on the Fund’s behalf. As such, the Fund may not be able to initiate a transaction or sell an investment. In addition, policies and procedures maintained by Golub Capital to deter the inappropriate sharing of material non-public information may limit the ability of Golub Capital personnel to share information with personnel in Golub Capital’s other business groups, which may ultimately reduce the positive synergies expected to be realized by the Fund as part of the broader Golub Capital investment platform.
- No Assurance of Investment Return. Prospective investors should be aware that an investment in the Fund is speculative and involves a high degree of risk. There can be no assurance that the Fund will achieve comparable results, implement its investment strategy, achieve its objectives or avoid substantial losses or that any expected returns will be met. The Fund’s performance may be volatile. An investment should only be considered by sophisticated investors who can afford to lose all or a substantial amount of their investment. The Fund’s fees and expenses may offset or exceed its profits.

- Reliance on Key Management Personnel. The success of the Fund will depend, in large part, upon the skill and expertise of certain Golub Capital professionals. In the event of the death, disability or departure of any key Golub Capital professionals, the business and the performance of the Fund may be adversely affected.
- Target Allocations. There can be no assurance that the Fund will achieve its objectives or avoid substantial losses. Allocation targets depend on a variety of factors, including prevailing market conditions and investment availability. There is no guarantee that such targets will be achieved and any particular investment may not meet the target criteria.
- Third Party Information. Certain information contained in this Material has been obtained from sources outside Golub Capital, which in certain cases have not been updated through the date hereof.
